

THE GREEN ROOM GAZETTE

A message from our president....

Good Evening, Welcome to The Green Room Gazette. I'm your host BLT's John Myers

It's November, the leaves have turned, snow is coming and our season is rolling along.

- ❖ The Butler Did It recently closed.
- ❖ Candle in the Window is about to open.
- ❖ Out of Order has been cast and is in rehearsals.

What else is going on? The usual chaos and mayhem at the theater.

The Board is in the process of selecting our next season. If you know of any directors who are interested in submitting NOW is the time. Please contact Script Committee Chair Wendy Koepl, through the theater, bltboise48@aol.com.

With the holidays rapidly approaching I like to remind everyone that you can still buy Season tickets and Flex passes for family and friends.

'til next time
J

A special thanks to Director Andrea Haskett and her cast and crew for the hard work putting together our October show, “The Butler Did It”. The production was a success on all levels; attendance, quality, and audience enjoyment, judging by the huge gales of laughter rolling down the aisles.

Good job!

Do you remember when?

THE ROWS IN OUR AUDITORIUM WERE LETTERED
FROM BACK TO FRONT?

When our theater first opened the rows were lettered as they are now with "A" as the front row. However, it wasn't always so. In about 1965 new seats were installed in the auditorium. Season ticket sales were nearly completed. Everything was on schedule for opening the season. Then the tickets arrived and it was discovered they had been printed with the alphabet starting at the BACK row. With no time to get the tickets reprinted it could have been a disaster. However, quick thinking and action saved the opening. The row letters were repainted to match the tickets!
